

Conflict Minerals Statement

Based on the SEC Final Ruling document regarding the Conflict Mineral portion of the Dodd-Frank Act, Power Clinic, as a repair facility, is not considered to "contract to manufacture" any product and is therefore not required to report.

Please refer to pages 21-22 of the SEC Final Ruling where the following text is found "An issuer will not be considered to "contract to manufacture" a product if it does no more than take the following actions.....(3) the issuer services, maintains, or repairs a product manufactured by a third party."
